

"Shannon is one of my all time favorite singers. She has the gift, the voice, the heart, and above all, she lives the life she sings about. Every time I have had the privilege to worship with her, in a concert setting or in the studio, I am inspired to love God more. She is the real thing."

-Paul Baloché
(Integrity worship leader and writer of 'Open the Eyes of My Heart' and 'Above All)

"Shannon - Your 'Faithful God' CD has become my 'go to' CD when I need encouragement from the Lord. God has really used those songs in my life. Recently I was flying back from LA (4 hour flight) and I was tired, discouraged and feeling alone and sorry for myself. I listened to 'Faithful God' for almost three hours and found myself crying and worshipping the Lord on the plane. I could feel my tanks filling back up...anyway, I just wanted you to know your ministry blesses my life."

- Mike Harland (Director, LifeWay Worship)

"Shannon is an amazing singer with a heart of gold and a deep, genuine passion for God. When Shannon sings, I believe every word she says..."

- Buddy Owens
(Editor of the NIV Worship Bible and Author of 'The Way of a Worshiper')

"Shannon, in the truest sense, is a musical servant to the Body of Christ. She possesses a heart to serve, not to be served. She is more interested in helping others see the Lord than having others recognize her ministry."

- Pastor Tom Ewing
(Worship Leader, Loveland, CO)

Shannon Wexelberg

Shannon Wexelberg is a worship leader, songwriter, artist, pianist, wife and mom who loves to worship the Father and help lead others into His presence. Not a performer, but a psalmist, Shannon longs for her music to draw attention to the only One who can truly meet our needs and who deserves all the glory - the Lord Jesus Christ. Shannon's desire is also for the Lord to use her music to minister to the brokenhearted and to encourage and uplift those who are battling with hopelessness and despair by helping them lift their eyes to Jesus - the only Source of hope and healing!

Shannon surrendered her life to Christ at the age of six, when her Mom, Barbara, led her to the Lord. She has been involved in music, as an expression of worship, her entire life. She is also a graduate of both Christ for the Nations and Dallas Baptist University, where she studied Theology and Christian Ministries. Since that time, the Lord has opened the doors for Shannon to minister at many churches, women's conferences and worship events around the world. She has also been a member of the Maranatha! Praise Band and taught as a clinician for their Worship Leader Workshops. She is grateful to have had the chance to write and record three worship albums of her own ("Faithful God," "Story of My Life," & "Shades of You") as well as to have written for and recorded with many other individuals and ministries including: Paul Baloché, Ross Parsley, Jared Andersen, Charles Billingsley, Scott Krippyne, The Desperation Band, The Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir, PBS, Day of Discovery, Lifeway Worship, J. Daniel Smith, Maranatha! Music, Integrity Music, Christ for the Nations, Discovery House Music, RBC Ministries, Word Entertainment, Revive Our Hearts with Nancy Leigh DeMoss, Doxology Records, American Association of Christian Counselors, Family Life Ministries, Kim Hill, Matthew Ward, Sheila Walsh, Women of Joy, the Assemblies of God Missions Department, Mission Network News and others. God has also given her success at inspirational radio through such songs as "Count It All Joy," "All Your Promises Are True," "You Are My Refuge," "In the Waiting," "From the Rising," "When I Think About The Lord" and "Jesus, What a Savior." Her worship songs have been featured many times on Worship Leader Magazine's Song DIScovery - a musical resource for Worship Leaders around the nation.

Shannon, her husband Mark, and their son Christian make their home in Colorado. With the exception of a few international trips throughout the year, Shannon ministers a couple weekends a month stateside and in her home church, preserving time for family, friends and songwriting.

"Shannon's 'Faithful God' is absolutely Spirit filled. It goes straight to my heart and then releases my praises to MY AWESOME GOD! - Barb

"Thank you for being so open-hearted about your adoption journey. We are in the process of adopting from Russia (16 months and counting) and "In the Waiting" has been our theme song. Thank you for encouraging me and so many others who are on this incredible journey. Be blessed!" - Karen

"Hi Shannon, I love your music. I appreciate your attitude of worship and not performance. Probably the highest compliment you can get in this earthly realm is to have people recognize the Jesus in your music and want to emulate it themselves in worship. - Sally

"I have to tell you I really love your songs from the throne room. I can tell that they really are birthed from intimacy with the King. Many times I am in His presence and so overwhelmed that I have no words, but only a heart filled with worship. Then your music helps me express what I feel to Jesus." - Curleen
